

MEET THE SUMMER STAFF OF SLU 101

Amelia Stenbridge | Amelia is a Nursing major going into her sophomore year at Charleston Southern and a javelin thrower on the track and field team. She lives with her parents in Bamberg, SC. She also has two brothers and a sister-in-law. She loves going new places, shopping, and hanging out with her nephew-dog, Otto. Amelia attended SLU 101 as a student and wanted to join the team this summer because of the impact the staff had on her when she was attending.

Ashlyn Stuckey | Ashlyn is a Christian Studies major at CSU. She enjoys spending time walking her dog, hanging out with her fiancée and chatting about all things Disney World. Ashlyn calls the small town of Hartsville, SC home! She is the middle child of two brothers and tries to see them as much as she can. She is serving at SLU this summer to gain leadership experience from the best of the best, to serve the students, and most importantly, to serve the Lord and make heaven crowded!

Chloe Holmes | Chloe will be a sophomore at CSU this coming school year studying communications major with a minor in psychology. She's an Air Force brat and has lived in seven places, shaping her into the person she is today. Chloe loves dance and is returning to CSU's dance team this fall for a second season. In her free time, Chloe enjoys going to the beach, hanging out with friends, running, driving her jeep, and going on random new adventures. She is working with SLU this summer to encourage others to become wonderful and inspiring leaders for Christ while also growing to become a more mature leader herself.

Christopher "CJ" Isaac | Christopher Isaac aka "CJ" is from a small city in South Carolina called Darlington. He's a junior at Charleston Southern studying Marketing and looks forward to opening his own personal training business someday. He's looking forward to spending time with each of the students attending and being part of leading them towards Christ even the more.

Clara Beth Smith | Clara Beth will be a sophomore at Charleston Southern University in the fall, majoring in Public Health with a minor in Psychology. She is from Florence,

SC. Clara Beth is involved on campus in some of the college ministries and will be a resident assistant beginning in fall 2025. In her free time she enjoys reading, baking, and traveling. She is excited to work at SLU 101 this summer because she loves working with students and helping them grow in their relationship with God!

Gaby Lindemann | Gaby Lindemann is a nursing major with a minor in sociology, entering her sophomore year at CSU. She's originally from Deltona, FL just 45 minutes from Orlando, and come from a family of six—three siblings, one sister-in-law, a mom who teaches, and a dad who serves as a firefighter. Gabby loves coffee, the beach, and trips to Disney World. She's excited to work with SLU this summer because it played a significant role in leading her to CSU and has deeply strengthened her relationship with the Lord. Gabby is grateful for the opportunity to give back to a program that has meant so much to her.

Jeovani Williams | Jeovani is from Savannah, Georgia and is currently studying marketing at Charleston Southern. He enjoys working out, challenges and throwing a football back and forth. He calls Savannah, GA home. Jeovani joined SLU team to serve, inspire and motivate the next generation to never give up no matter what life throws their way, and to continue striving for greatness never lose their tenacity or there why!

Kaleb Smith | Kaleb is a pre-law major and an upcoming junior at CSU. He was born and raised in Savannah, Georgia and enjoys spending time with friends and family, watching podcasts. Kaleb is a musician and loves music, playing both the piano and bass guitar. He's excited to work with the SLU team this summer to serve, learn and grow as an individual and leader.

Morgan Holt | Morgan is from Latta, South Carolina. She's a rising sophomore studying Early Childhood Education with the hopes to be a kindergarten teacher back in her hometown. Morgan loves hanging out with friends around Charleston and making late-night beach trips. She's working with SLU this summer because it's a great opportunity to impact the next generation of leaders.

Noah Woodell | Noah is a rising sophomore at CSU with a major in Criminal Justice and minor in Spanish. He was born and raised in lovely Greensboro, NC. His goal and strive to work at SLU this summer is to help those who may need answers about God and to give rising freshman a warm welcome. He came to CSU knowing no one and knows that can be challenging or scary experience. He wants to make sure no one else has to go through that alone.
