

MEET THE SUMMER STAFF OF SLU 101

BELLA TABOR | Bella Tabor is a rising junior at Charleston Southern University in Charleston, South Carolina. She is studying Graphic Design, minoring in Communications, and pursuing her love of photography. Her favorite things to do include going to local coffee shops, spending time with friends and family, and traveling. She is passionate about Student Ministry and serves as a Student Ministry Intern at her home church, Christ Church Anglican. Bella has completed SLU 101 and 201, and will be heading to 301 this summer. She is so excited to serve on the SLU 101 Summer Staff and get to know some incredible people!

CHLOE HOLMES | Chloe Holmes is going in to her junior year at Charleston Southern University, she is majoring in Public Health and double minoring in Psychology and Kinesiology with the goal of becoming a child life specialist. Chloe is going into her third season on CSU's dance team where she loves cheering on the Bucs, training to compete at nationals, and most of all having the opportunity to be a light of Christ to the people on her team! She is an Air Force brat so she doesn't technically have one home town but is currently from Charleston S.C. Chloe is working with SLU this summer because she has enjoyed learning to lead at the feet of Jesus as a student at 101 and 201 and as summer staff last year!

CLARA BETH SMITH | Clara Beth Smith is majoring in public health at CSU. She is from Florence, SC. This is her second summer working at SLU and she is excited to return and see how God is continuing to work through this organization. She enjoys reading, baking, and road trips. She loves serving at college in various ministries and groups on campus.

GRACYN WILLIAMS | Gracyn is a rising senior studying graphic design at Charleston Southern University. She is from a small, southern town called Williston, SC where she grew up and attended the local high school, graduating Valedictorian in her 2024 class. She attended SLU 101 in high school after a college visit to CSU. Attending that conference played a huge role in her college decision and has led her to continue her growth by choosing leadership as her minor. She is excited to work with SLU this summer because of the impact it had on her life and she hopes to help many others grow in their true potential and guide them towards a life full of success.

JAIDEN JACKSON | Jaiden Jackson is someone who is very compassionate towards God's people to evangelize and bring others to His kingdom. He is from Camden, South Carolina, and he is majoring in communications. Jaiden graduated in 2027 from Charleston Southern. Some of his interest is hanging out and listening to others, being genuine to reach out and support others, and pouring out what Christ pours into him. Jaiden has three siblings and grew up closer to his mom. He is working at SLU this summer because he has a burning desire for the Lost to be reached. He was once lost, so it's his mission to share with others the gospel that saved and transformed Him.

KATIE KROUT | Katie is a rising sophomore at Charleston Southern University, where she is pursuing a degree in Kinesiology with a concentration in Athletic Training. She is from Liberty, South Carolina, a small town located near Clemson. Growing up, she was highly involved in sports, especially alongside her brother, which helped shape her passion for health and performance. In her free time, Katie enjoys working out, listening to music, and learning to play the guitar. She chose to be part of the SLU conference this summer because of the significant role it has played in her personal and spiritual development. Katie looks forward to continuing to grow both personally and professionally within a community that shares her values.

KALEB SMITH | Kaleb Smith is a Pre-Law and Legal Studies major at Charleston Southern University. He is from Savannah, Georgia, and values strong community and faith. This summer, he is working with SLU to develop his leadership skills and positively impact students for Jesus. Kaleb enjoys music as a way to relax and stay motivated. He also loves spending time with family and friends.

